Nancy Perry attended and graduated from the Kentucky School for the Deaf (KSD) in Danville, KY and uses native American Sign Language. She has taught more than 15 years at Bowling Green Community Education. She enjoys teaching ASL, encouraging signers/interpreters and teaching ASL classes to help improve skills their skills to communicate more clearly for the Deaf Communities. Nancy's major was Graphic Design, B.F.A. and she enjoys creating many things and designing for organizations, ASL resources for ASL Labs and businesses. Nancy has presented Classifier workshops in KY, SSP for Deaf-Blind, & Mouth Morphemes workshops recently at the Southern Baptist Conference of the Deaf (SBCD). She has been involved with interpreter trainings and workshops, interpreter mentor and evaluator of staff and interpreter skills at KSD, and other areas for many years. Nancy studies and documents lists of many words/signs from native Deaf people who tend to use Classifiers & Mouth Morphemes and she uses what she has observed in her workshops and trainings.

This workshop will discuss the use Mouth Morphemes in the development of interpreting skills for use within church and secular settings. How Mouth Morphemes are used in Bible storytelling, in life experiences and everyday communication with deaf individuals. Lexical markers and how to use them for enhanced interpreter skills.
